

Sustainable Financing Advisory Services

E.SUN provides sustainable financing advisory services, acting as an underwriter to assist companies in issuing sustainable bonds to raise funds for sustainable actions in the capital market. Since issuing the first green bond in Taiwan in 2017, E.SUN has participated in the issuance of sustainable bonds annually and ranks first among Taiwan's domestic banks in terms of the sustainable bonds issuance scale with a total issuance amount of approximately NTD 23.4 billion by the end of 2023. E.SUN continuously channeling funds to industries and projects that are friendly to the society and environment and providing customers with diverse financing options and responsible investment targets.