About Petite Mode Studio

Petite Mode Studio acts in coordination with the topics of "Quality Education" and "Responsible Consumption and Production" of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal (SDGs). Starting from "Design your own T-shirt", we teach children how to use second-handed fabric to construct, reorganize and eventually create a new object with green design. Petite Mode Studio's mission is to Introduce sustainable fashion to our daily life.

Fun, Creative, and Hands-on activities!

Small school Online Courses :

To solve the problem of insufficient aesthetic teachers in small schools, STEAM UP ART ON project use E-learning to bring design lessons to students far away from cities. Combine Petite Mode Studio's APP with hands-on activities to enrich students' learning journey.

Project teaching methods: Online + Offline

A Closet for All Seasons :

Merge "Global STEAM" stages in the curriculum. Students learn the design logic through Global STEAM stages' perspectives and discover the fun of hands-on activities. Distance teaching in cooperation with Institute for Information Industry, III.

Course Planning: A semester-based conceptual planning is to conduct the "Aesthetic course Online" in 4 sections.
